Results Assessment Framework

The RAF identifies the expected results (inputs, outputs, outcomes, impact) and their causal relationships, indicators, and the assumptions or risks that may influence success and failure of the [project/programme].